

Investment
Agriculture Foundation
of British Columbia

HELPING AGRICULTURE ADAPT, DIVERSIFY and GROW

Stuart Wilson Chair Investment Agriculture Foundation of BC

Stuart Wilson is one of two post-farm gate representatives on the Investment Agriculture Foundation board. Prior to taking on the role of chair in 2008, Stuart served as the Foundation's treasurer.

Early in his career, Stuart spent time at Sun Rype Foods, Dairyland and Lipton Puritan. He also had a career spanning 32 years with the federal government, working for Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada and the Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA) in Burnaby, Winnipeg, Ottawa and Victoria. He served as regional director with CFIA, the position from which he retired.

Stuart also represented Canadian agriculture on trade missions to France, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom and has served on the executives of Canada/US organizations aimed at resolving regulatory issues surrounding the movement of agricultural commodities to and from BC.

Funding provided by:

