

New Manager of Finance and Operations at IAF

Victoria, BC – January 30, 2009 The Investment Agriculture Foundation of B.C. (IAF) is pleased to announce the appointment of Judy Jacklin to the position of Manager, Finance and Operations.

“We are delighted that Judy is joining our team,” says IAF Executive Director Peter Donkers. “Judy will play a pivotal role in helping us better serve our partners and clients.”

Jacklin is a Certified Management Accountant with an extensive background in the private and not-for-profit sectors and joins the Foundation following successful employment with 3One Media Corporation and the Victoria Conservatory of Music. She brings a strong background in fund accounting, financial reporting and accountability, strategic and risk management, performance measurement, and business case analysis.

Jacklin starts in early February and can be reached at the Victoria IAF office at (250) 356-1662, or by e-mail at Judy.Jacklin@gov.bc.ca. She replaces Sherry Greening, who has returned to the B.C. Ministry of Agriculture and Lands following a long-term secondment to the Foundation.

The Investment Agriculture Foundation of B.C. is a not-for-profit organization that manages and distributes federal and provincial funds in support of innovative projects to benefit B.C.’s agriculture and agri-food industries.
